WHAT IS A RECRUITING VIDEO?

Recruiting Videos are interactive DVDs that showcase an athlete through video clips, graphics, and/or interviews. Each recruiting video is personalized to match the athlete's personality and desires. You can send us your own sports footage, or our videographers can video tape the event with professional equipment. Then, our experts will carefully edit the footage and add effects, titles, and other elements to make each video professional and appealing.

WHY USE A RECRUITING VIDEO?

It is important that athletes stand out against the competition and get noticed by college recruiters. FlipBox Productions' high quality, digitally edited DVD will help you athlete standout. The benefit of creating a Recruiting Video is that sports recruiters can watch and re-watch highlights, listen to personal testimonials from coaches and athletes, and learn what the athlete can contribute to their team.

A recruiting video does not guarantee a place in a collegiate athletic program. It is an athletic resume. If a college coach contacts a student-athletes to schedule a visit to the campus or to begin a discussion about playing opportunities, then the recruiting video is a success.
